

GarCom Incorporated in 1996, and is a full service communications cable and special systems design and installation company servicing government agencies and private industry throughout the United States. GarCom, Inc. produces successful projects through a no-nonsense approach to construction services, offering clients a host of focused, proven and tangible design services used to deliver maximum satisfaction, minimal expense and superior performance

As state of the art systems service provider, GarCom, Inc. specializes in offering a range of services. Whether your need is for full fiber optic services, copper services, audiovisual, digital signage or surveillance, we have a team eager to answer your needs.